

Subject: Roxie

From: Deanna W <deanna.w@niagaradogrescue.com>

Date: 5/10/25, 12:18

To: phil <fboseglav@brocku.ca>

Hi Phil,

This is the previous bio we had for Roxie prior to her being adopted and now in foster with you.

Could you make the necessary changes for me please?

Thanks,
Deanna

Name: Roxie (20220313-05)

Weight: 35 pounds

Age: 3.5 years

Gender: Female

Spayed/Neutered: Yes

Breed: retriever mix

Colour: chocolate & white

Neck size (for collar): 17"

Height (from top of head): 18"

Length (from nose to base of tail): 27"

Crate size recommended: 36"

Good with women: Yes

Good with men: Yes

Good with kids: Yes

Good with other dogs: Good with low energy dogs, but not with in your face, barky and reactive dogs

Good with cats: No

House trained: Yes

Crate trained: Yes

Energy level: Medium

Can be handled/touched: Yes

Barker: No

Flight risk: No, but all dogs should be treated as a flight risk unit they get used to their new surroundings

Food aggressive: No

Current food:

Walks on leash: Yes

Leash reactive to people or dogs: No

Rides well in car: Yes

Destructive: No

Needs a home with a yard: Not necessarily

Needs a home with another dog: No, prefers people

Can live in an apartment: Yes

History: was asked to rescue her, after she was owner surrendered to a vet clinic

Other important info: Roxie would be perfect for someone looking for a pretty low key girl. I do not see her being a big social butterfly. Not seeing a hiking partner or anything like that. Chill out couch potato I think is going to be her happiest. She does love kids and being surrounded by people. She doesn't like loud, barky and in your face dogs.